God raises and removes government leaders.

-God raises up men and women to government positions in order to work out His purposes. He can use Godly, hypocritical, secular, and downright evil leaders.

-God worked through the governments led by Herod the Great, King Saul of Israel, Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, Cyrus of the Mede/Persian Empire, and Jehu, the renegade leader of Israel.

Daniel 2:20-22

The church must influence the government.

-Give to Caesar what is Caesar's.
We must be involved as much as our government model allows.

-We must pray for all leaders.

-We must honor all authorities.

-We must do our homework in understanding the track record and true values of candidates.

-We cannot be swayed by things offered for "free" in exchange for votes.

2 Kings 21:7-9

Our government leaders reflect the spiritual condition of the nation.

-Our leaders have influenced us but "the people refused to listen" to the warnings of God's prophets and voices.

-There are unholy alliances that influence entertainment media, news media, and education which are led power-hungry secret societies and government leaders.

-They have told us what to consume and we have consumed it willingly.

Proverbs 22:6

When judging leaders, understand that God does weigh certain sins more than others.

-One sin makes us guilty of the whole law.

-However, God punishes certain sins more than others. Some were banished, stoned to death, some you could atone for, some made you unclean until evening, and some for 30 days.

-We must judge candidates correctly and look at their track records. God wants us to vote pro-life, pro-family, and for those who advocate for freedom of worship for Christians in America.

Matthew 18:6, Matthew 23:23

God will judge
all according to their works.

-Leaders are placed and removed by God. Those that obey God's mandate for their lives will be blessed but those who abuse their power will be judged accordingly.

-To whom much is given, much is required.

-We must submit to government authorities.

-Some of us may be called into public office.

Revelation 22:12
