

1

Your heart is yours to give.

-God does not need anything from us
but wants our devotion.

-If you find no enjoyment in your Christian walk, it is likely because you have not surrendered.

Romans 12:1, Matthew 16:24-27

The background of the right half of the image is a close-up of an electrocardiogram (ECG) strip. It features a grid of small squares and larger vertical lines. A black line representing the heart's electrical activity (the ECG trace) is visible, showing several distinct peaks and troughs. The text 'a healthy heart' is overlaid on this background.

a healthy heart

2

Your heart must be healed.

-Many of us have a broken heart but He is close to the brokenhearted.

-Jesus came to heal our broken hearts.

-When we are made whole, we begin to dream.

-God wants to heal out broken hearts of offenses, unforgiveness and bitterness.

Psalm 34:18, Luke 4:18-19,
Psalm 126:1, Ephesians 4:31-32

The background of the right side of the image is a close-up of an ECG (heart rate) monitor. It features a grid of small squares and larger vertical lines. A black line representing a heart rate trace is visible, showing several peaks and troughs. The text 'a healthy heart' is overlaid on this background.

a
healthy heart

3

The heart must be kept pure.

-Our heart needs maintenance. We must stand in front of Him and ask his Holy Spirit to examine our hearts.

-We must keep our hearts from idolatry, offenses, and sexual immorality.

-Those that are diligent to their heart pure, prosper in all things.

Isaiah 1:16-19, Psalm 1:1-3

The background of the right side of the image is a close-up of an electrocardiogram (ECG) strip. It features a light blue grid with a darker blue grid of larger squares. A black line representing the heart's electrical activity (the ECG trace) is visible, showing several distinct peaks and troughs. The text 'a healthy heart' is overlaid on this background.

a healthy heart