You need a face-to-face encounter with God.

-When Lazarus came back to life, he was still bound by the grave clothes he was wearing, so Jesus ordered the disciples to remove the grave clothes. We need a life-changing encounter to remove our grave clothes.

Exodus 16:1-3

a life-Changing encounter

A dramatic landscape with a glowing tree and a dark sky. The scene is set in a desert-like environment with a large, gnarled tree on the right side. The tree's foliage is a bright, fiery yellow-orange, contrasting sharply with the dark, moody sky and the silhouetted mountains in the background. The ground is a flat, light-colored expanse, possibly sand or snow. The overall atmosphere is one of mystery and divine presence.

You are never the same after an encounter with God.

-When you have an encounter with God, you are never the same.

-God moves circumstances in order for you to have an encounter with Him, when all of a sudden you see Him clearly, and you are changed.

Isaiah 43:1, Genesis 32:22-31

God has prepared multiple encounters for you.

-At different times in our lives, Jesus will "setup a meeting" with us in order to deal with us and to prepare us for the next stage.

-Because of the pandemic, some of us are stuck, and need an encounter with God, but God has been preparing for your next season.
